THE VACANT SEAT.

Suggestion That Ex-President Harrison Succeed Justice Jackson.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says that an ex-President is among those suggested for the vacancy on the Supreme bench caused by the death of Justice Jackson. Attention has been called to the fact that while Mr. Harrison was President of the United States he was broad enough to appoint as a Justice of the Supreme Court an ex-Confederate and a Democrat, Howell E. Jackson. It is suggested, in view of this fact, that Mr. Cleveland, brushing aside party considerations, should appoint his predecessor in the White House to the vacant place in the highest judicial tribunal in the country.

No President since Washington has had an opportunity to make more than five appointments to this post of duty and dignity. Washington made eleven appointments and John Adams made three. Cleveland has made three appointments and Grant the only others who ever reached five. Harrison named four. Cleveland has made three appointments and has a vacancy to fill, while there is one on the bench who may retire before the end of this administration.

AND THE COCK CROWED THRICE.

DULUTH, Aug. 13.—The News-Tribune this morning published an interview with Secretary Carlisle, who said: "It would be indecent for me to discuss the vacancy occasioned by the death of Justice Jackson at this time, except in so far as to allude to that portion of Justice Field's remarks which credit me as a Presidential aspirant. It seems to me as if a man's word should go for something, but it does not seem to with some people. I have said that I have any Presidential aspirations, and it is scarcely necessary to deny it again."

AN ENRAGED NEGRO.

Empties His Pistol into a Crowd of Passengers.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.)

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—On the levee this morning an enraged negro fired a fusillade into a crowd of passengers on the crowded steamer City of St. Louis as they came down the gangplank. The wounded are: LOU DAVIS, colored, captain of the night watch, shot in the kidneys, will probably die. FRANK BENNETT, white, roustabout, artery in the arm severed. JOHN BELL, steward steamer City of Cairo, lives at Vicksburg, shot in the leg, not serious. WILLIAM THOMAS, colored, roustabout, shot in the left leg, not serious. The shooting was the outcome of a fight between the negro, whose name is unknown, and Lou Davis, captain of the watch, while the steamer was lying at Cairo Sunday, in which the negro was driven from the boat. He boarded a train and arrived here last night. Early this morning he concealed himself behind a pile of freight on the levee and when the steamer arrived and the passengers and crew were moving down the staging to the shore, he opened fire. The would-be murderer has not yet been captured.

WITH REMINGTONS.

Savage Indians Invade Mexican Soil and Threaten Trouble.

MERIDA (Yucatan), Aug. 13.—Five hundred Indians, belonging to savage tribes on the border of the British colony of Belize, have appeared on Mexican soil, all armed with Remington rifles, and with abundant ammunition purchased from British colonists. This fact arouses the greatest indignation, for the savages intend raiding remote plantations, and being now well armed, it will require a large number of troops to subdue them. Cubans and Spaniards here are having daily fights in the hotels and streets.

RANSOM'S REPUTATION.

The Minister Denies That He Criticized Mexican Officials.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Capt. Arthur Barnes today received the following telegram from Minister Ransom in reply to a letter calling Mr. Ransom's attention to a report that he had given offense to Mexico by an interview criticizing the conduct of Mexican officials in extradition matters between Mexico and the United States.

"WELDON (N. C.), Aug. 13.—All a mistake. Not one word of truth in any statement reflecting on Mexico officially."

THE GOVERNMENT IN A STATE OF CONFUSION—All Foreigners Are Ordered to Foo-Chow—A Crisis in Japan's Cabinet.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(By Atlantic Cable.) An official telegram has been received in London announcing that the Peking government, at the suggestion of the British Minister, Mr. O'Connor, has issued a peremptory edict, calling on the Government of the province in the empire to prevent the people from being misled by idle rumors calculated to excite anti-missionary disorders. Five of the participants in Ku-Chang outrages have been arrested and will be tried.

A CABLEGRAM FROM FOO-CHOW.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The Rev. Dr. A. B. Leonard, corresponding secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Board of Foreign Missions, received the following cablegram from Foo-Chow today: "Gregory proceeds to Ku-Chang today with the Consul to investigate the Chinese riots. Hung-Wa workers ordered to come to Foo-Chow." (Signed) "SMITH."

ORDERED TO FOO-CHOW.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—A cablegram to the World from Foo-Chow says that the diplomatic party which the Associated Press advised today from Shanghai announced would leave Foo-Chow to investigate the massacre, has started upon its mission. The World adds: "All foreigners in the inland provinces have been ordered to come to Foo-Chow."

AN OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The following cablegram signed by the Chinese Foreign Office, the Tsung-Li-Yamen, was received at the Chinese legation today: "No American citizens have been killed in the recent riots, though several English were. Five rioters have been arrested. This is the first official information received from the Chinese government. The officials of the legation maintain strenuously that the Chinese government will exercise every effort to bring the guilty to justice. They admit the possibility of negligence, but not of culpability on the part of the officials."

THE JAPANESE CABINET CRISIS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—No information has been received at the Japanese legation in London, or at the denial of the report that a Cabinet crisis exists in Japan, though the legation would not necessarily be informed of such an occurrence until the formation of a new ministry.

The report of dissolution was, however, a surprise to the members of the legation, and caused great interest. While accustomed to look on Count Ito and Yamagata as almost permanent parts of the Japanese government, they had been informed by the Japanese press that there had been dissatisfaction expressed among the opposition politicians concerning the resignation from the terms of the original treaty, and it is surmised that any changes will be due to this criticism.

They think, however, that a change on this account is improbable, as in Japan the history of the creation of the Emperor, and its continuance in office is in nowise dependent on popular approval, except so far as the ministers may personally be influenced by it. Furthermore, they find it difficult to realize that there should be any misunderstanding on the question of rank. Both Ito and Yamagata are Counts. The former holds the highest decoration within the gift of the Emperor, and the latter is a marshal of the empire. It is not understood who men who have already been so highly honored would make trouble over the question of the conferring of an honor which would be only a slight advance on their present positions.

No one at the legation will venture an opinion as to who might succeed Count Ito as Prime Minister in case of his permanent retirement.

A CONGRUENT PARTY OF INQUIRY.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 13.—Mandell, acting British Consul at Foo-Chow; Allen, British Vice Consul at Padoga Island; Col. J. Courtney Hickson, United States Consul at Foo-Chow; Banister and Gregory and one of the lieutenants of the United States cruiser Detroit will start from Foo-Chow for Ku-Chang, the scene of the recent massacre, as soon as possible, to make a complete inquiry into the riot. The regular party will be escorted by a detachment of 100 Chinese troops, the Viceroy having refused to allow an escort of foreign soldiers or marines.

MINISTER DENY INVESTIGATION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Advices have been received at the State Department that Mr. Denby is consulting with the British and Chinese authorities relative to a full and complete investigation of the riot at Ku-Chang. A commission is being formed. The State Department has given instructions which will cause the Minister to neglect nothing that will insure the better protection of the interests of Americans at Ku-Chang. He will also, in co-operation of Admiral Carpenter, take steps to prevent further riots and protect American interests, should any trouble arise.

IN HELPLESS CONFUSION.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Times will publish a dispatch from Tien-Tsin tomorrow which says that the Chinese government is in a state of helpless confusion and is incapable of any decisive action or of exercising any effective authority. The result will probably prove serious, unless the foreign powers take action.

LINED THEM UP.

A Poughkeepsie Man Threatens the Lives of His Daughters.

ROCHESTER (N. Y.), Aug. 13.—Max L. Gutman, a politician and retired jewelry manufacturer, attempted to commit suicide last evening by shooting, after he had vainly endeavored to kill his four daughters. He is now in the hospital in an unconscious condition and death is likely to result. Gutman, who was sitting in the parlor of his residence conversing with his four daughters, went to a bookcase and took therefrom an old-fashioned four-barreled pistol. He wheeled suddenly around, pointed the weapon and commanded the door to sit still. He then closed the door of the parlor and announced to his daughters that he intended to shoot them one by one.

"There are four shots here," he exclaimed, brandishing the weapon, "one for each of you. Then I will load again and kill myself. Sit still now."

Instead they ran out into the yard and alarmed the neighbors. When the police came, although he had shot himself twice, he held them at bay for some time. He has been beaten quietly for some time. On a table in Gutman's room was found this note:

"Max L. Gutman, on account of a deceptive wife, killed himself deliberately for murdering his children. No insanity, no drunkenness."

DISASTROUS STORMS.

DAMAGE DONE IN NEW YORK BY THUNDERBOLTS.

Nicholas Copp Killed and His Wife and Family Prostrated at Hyattsville. Local and Work of the Elements Elsewhere.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(Special Dispatch.) The Chronicle prints today an Odessa dispatch regarding the persistent circulation of rumors of the withdrawal of Czar Nicholas II. from the active guidance of the government of the empire and the gradual assumption of power by the ex-Czarina, aided by Durnovo, Minister of Interior, and Pobedonosteff, Procurator-General of the Holy Synod.

This change of attitude, the dispatch says, is due to the increasing power of the anti-German party. The Dowager Czarina, Princess Dagmar of Denmark, who has always been an enemy of Germany and head of the church in Russia, is bitterly opposed to German influence. The young Czarina, it was hoped, would develop a strength of character which would enable her to influence the Czar, who is notoriously feeble character, in the direction of positive action for the improvement of the empire, but the latest news from St. Petersburg has indicated that she is quite unequal to such a task as confronts her, and it has been known for some months that nothing can be expected of her.

Naturally, the strong character of princess Dagmar has brought her to the front, and her well-known sympathy to German influences will probably bring into positive evidence the lack of sympathy between Russia and Germany.

Statement of the Receivers of E. S. Jaffray & Co.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Great interest was attached to the statement of the receivers of E. S. Jaffray & Co. to the formal statement of the receivers of E. S. Jaffray & Co. to the creditors. The statement is signed by Howard S. Jaffray, Augustus D. Julliard and James G. Cannon, receivers, and is as follows:

"The receivers of E. S. Jaffray & Co., having filed the accounts in detail of the first instant with W. W. Ladd, as referee, as directed by the judgment under which they were appointed, the referee issued to the creditors a notice returnable on the 30th inst., the day upon which the receivers will ask for the passage of their accounts. In view of numerous inquiries made respecting this situation, the receivers think that it is proper for them to send to the creditors the enclosed summary or recapitulation of the accounts thus filed, showing the assets and liabilities of the firm, and the cash balance on hand on the last inst. of $609,183.29.

"The amount paid for salaries, $74,183.29; includes the salaries paid to the salesmen during the merchandise sale in March, April and May. The amounts paid in settlement of claims of employees, under the order of the court, includes about $39,000 paid for salaries of the current month, preceding the appointment of the receivers and the settlement of claims of employees. The receivers have disposed of all claims of those employed upon annual salaries in New York and abroad. The amount of $147,761.68 paid for salaries includes the balance of the loans paid in cases where the value of the collateral taken up exceeded the amount of the loan, besides payments made abroad, of which complete vouchers have not been received at the time of filing the accounts and payments made upon account of the real estate under order of the court.

"Upon the passing of the receivers' accounts they will ask for a direction of the referee for the payment of a further dividend to the creditors. A dividend of 40 cents on the dollar will be paid on $3,202,001.33 of admitted claims. It will be understood that the accounting thus made is merely an intermediate accounting. No question as to the assets or debts of the firm of E. S. Jaffray & Co. will be determined until the final accounting."

PARLIAMENT OPENS.

The Speaker is Confirmed and Takes the Oath.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(By Atlantic Cable.) In the House of Commons today Speaker William C. Gully took the chair at noon in semi-official attire. A gentleman usher of the Black Rod summoned the members to the House of Commons, where the royal commission signified Her Majesty's confirmation of the election of Speaker Gully. The latter, on returning to the House of Commons, took the chair in the full robes of his office. The members then proceeded to take the oath, the Speaker going through that formal first of all.

UNEASY LABOR.

Vests, Pantaloons, Cloaks, Jackets and Shirts Will Be Thrown Aside.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The East Side is threatened with another strike. The strike of the Brotherhood of Tailors has aroused the vest-makers, pantaloons-makers, the cloak-makers, the children's jacket-makers and the shirt-makers. They have been talking strike and agitating against the contractors' associations. The bosses' associations have failed to sign an agreement. These agreements ask for nothing new. They are the same that were in force last year, but the bosses are opposed to the system of running the shops under union rules. The jacket-makers are fully prepared to call out their combined membership of five thousand persons on short notice. The pantaloons-makers will hold a mass-meeting to decide the strike.

The cloak-makers expect to order the rest of their big strike some time this week. The vest-makers are the number six of the strike. They are three thousand shirt-makers organized. They are talking strike. The manufacturers in the garment trade have caught the excitement. It is announced that they are very careful in taking orders and giving out contracts on account of the excited state of the cloak-makers.

THE TAILORS' STRIKE OFF.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The tailors' strike was formally declared off tonight by the strikers. Thirty contractors signed agreements today leaving but forty in the cold. The pants-makers, jacket-makers and shirt-makers are looking to a strike unless their employers will offer them more liberal contracts.

The Horseman Returns Home Not Pleased with His Treatment in Great Britain.

He Would Have Lost Considerable Money but for His Backing of English Horses.

Corbett's Friends Cannot Account for His Treatment of Fitzsimmons-Yachts Across the Sea. Baseball and Races.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(Special Dispatch.) Mike Dwyer, the turfman, who has been in England with Richard Croker since last March, returned today. Dwyer was glad to get home again, and from his conversation, was not too favorably impressed with the sportsmanlike qualities of English turfmen and was not at all surprised to receive at his hands.

"I returned home the owner of but one out of the string of horses I took with me. That one is Harry Reed. I cannot say I am pleased with the treatment accorded me in England. In the first place, my horses were almost entirely overlooked by handicappers. The Englishmen made it their business to claim any horse of mine entered in a selling race which was so unfortunate as to run second, and the one I saved out of the string was Harry Reed. They might have got him away from me, but they did not. I would win the last race in which he was entered. Up to that time the handicappers had always made Harry Reed carry 120 pounds, but in the race I speak of he was to carry but 103 pounds.

Harry Reed had excellent chances to win the race, and they knew it. That would not have suited their purpose, however, so they left him standing at the post. I am firmly convinced that the way it was done that it was a put-up job to leave him there. Then I quit in disgust and came back. Harry Reed is now on his way to England, and I have considerable money over there besides my horses, but for the fact that I placed some judicious bets on English horses and so covered my losses."

A MATCH RACE.

The Yachts Yampa and Amphitrite Entered for a Contest.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—A special to the Herald from Southampton says that lying off Southampton pier, among the fleet of yachts of every description is Palmer's crack cruiser, the Yampa. She has added one touch of interest to the course, which by defeating a host of well-known English cruising yachts and then having to relinquish Lord Iveagh's 200-guinea cup in favor of Willis's Amphitrite owing to an infringement of the rules regarding the number of men allowed on boats.

To Lord Dunraven belongs much credit for having devised a means whereby any feeling of soreness which may exist on either side may be caused to disappear on Saturday morning. Palmer has formally challenged Willis to a match for 100 guineas. This is the course sailed on Wednesday last when the Yampa won, but was afterward disqualified on the ground that she carried more men than the regulations allowed. This was not denied by Palmer, who has acted throughout in the most sportsmanlike manner, the mistake being simply due to his failure to read the rules before agreeing to start in the race.

THE TALENT LOST.

Horses Didn't Go Their Way—The Gentlemen's Road-race.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.) NAPA, Aug. 13.—The races today were very interesting, but the talent was hard hit. Boodle was a hot favorite before the race, and was considered a sure winner, but Visalia won in three straight heats.

In the 2:20 pace Prince Nutwood won in straight heats from the favorite, Golden West, who sold in the pools 25 to 1 before the race.

The 2:30 class, trotting:

Visalia 1 1 1
Myrtle Thom 2 2 3
Boodle 3 3 2
John Bury 3 3 4
Lucky B. Melvay, Chio 3 4
Hillsdale also started; time 2:17, 2:16, 2:16.

The 2:20 pace:

Prince Nutwood 1 1 1
Golden West 2 2 2

Fangle B. 3 3 3
Time 2:45, 2:45, 2:45.

ROYAL VICTORIA REGATTA.

The Altis Finishes First, but the Britannia Wins.

RYDE (Tele of Wight), Aug. 13.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Bad weather marked the opening today of the regatta of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club. The Altis, Britannia, Niagara, Caress and Isoldo started in a race for the Queen's cup over a forty-mile course, the Britannia got over the line too soon and was recalled, causing her to lose two minutes.

The Altis crossed the finish line first, but the Britannia won on time allowance. The following are the times: Altis, 2h. 53m. 27s.; Britannia, 2h. 53m. 55s.

LOST HIS HEAD.

Corbett's Friends Cannot Account for His Conduct.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.) NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Phil Dwyer, who is stakeholder for the fight between Jim Corbett and Bob Fitzsimmons in the two pugilists in Green's Hotel at Philadelphia on Saturday night, said:

"I did not think the man would act in that way. I have repeatedly warned him against losing his temper, but he evidently has not yet learned how to control himself. He had better learn how to keep a cool head before he gets into the ring. Fitzsimmons, or Bob, is very liable to tanalise him, and he will lose his head as he does—well, that is what he has done."

SENATOR VEST ON THE SILVER QUESTION.

He is Interviewed at Carlsbad and Declares Himself in Favor of Free Coinage.

He Does Not Believe That England Will Abandon Her Gold Standard.

Senator Peffer and His Land-money Idea. The London Times on "Ex-Secretary Whitney's Reserve."

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.) CARLSBAD, Aug. 13.—(By Atlantic Cable, Associated Press Copyright.) "The silver question will never be dropped in America until free coinage is passed," said Senator George G. Vest of Missouri here today, replying to a question put to him by a representative of the Associated Press, concerning the Missouri, Mississippi and Iowa conventions. "The people of the East," he continued, "believe it will be dropped as business revives, but the overwhelming sentiment in all the West and South is in favor of free coinage. I believe it will surely be passed in time. What the result of its passage will be I am unable to predict. The whole of the money power of the East is based on silver, where will undoubtedly make it as difficult as possible, and try to furnish a striking object lesson."

Easterners say that we in the West and South do not understand the question, but there is never a subject more fully discussed or more carefully studied. There is not a farmer in my constituency who is not fully conversant with the question, and the bearings of the question, and the same state of affairs exists throughout the Southwest."

Senator Vest was then asked to explain the action of Kentucky and Iowa, if the feeling was so universal. In reply, he said: "I cannot express an opinion as to the action of Kentucky and Iowa. It was similar to that of Kentucky, composed of State officials and office-holders. It is no criterion of public sentiment. A recent gentlemanly coincidence with Cleveland and Carlisle."

In regard to the prospects of an international monetary conference Senator Vest stated that "the gold standard is steadily decreasing, and the treasury is likely to be obliged to make another bargain with the syndicate. I regard it as an outrage that the treasury is obliged to make a bargain of $11,000,000 to a syndicate represented by Belmont and Morgan to prevent gold shipments. Their contract expires in October, and there is no prospect of their doing so, forcing the sale of more bonds, or let the obligations of the United States go to protest as Morgan threatened Mr. Belmont."

FREE SILVER COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Senator Harris of Tennessee, at the request of the Indiana and Senator Jones of Arkansas, was appointed a committee at the Memphis free-silver convention in charge of the conference which will be held here on the 14th and 15th inst.

is in the city making preparations for the gathering of free-silverites. The convention is to be held at the Hotel Hamilton, and the committee will accommodate about one hundred delegates.

Free-silver men were invited from all parts of the United States and Senator Harris predicts that thirty States will be represented. The Senator is reluctant to discuss important features of the conference in advance of the meeting, which is expected to result in a declaration of the people for the free coinage of silver at the rate of 16 to 1 and appoint committees to advance in every legitimate way the interests of the silver miner.

PEPPER'S LAND-MONEY IDEA.

EMPORIA (Kan.), Aug. 13.—Senator Peffer has written a letter to J. D. Harris, editor of the Emporia Press, in which he declares against silver and comes out strongly in favor of currency based on land values alone. He has discarded silver and the sub-treasury plan, and writes that the country is in a state of financial chaos. He calls attention to the fact that the average rate of interest is 7 per cent, and states that the net average saving is only 3 per cent. "We are," he continues, "paying more than twice as much for the use of the money we have been compelled to borrow as we have been able to save from our labor. Rents are governed by prevailing rates for the use of money. I have come to the conclusion that, giving the country as follows, the present plan of reform which has been suggested, the people cannot recover from their oppressive burdens of debt except through the abolition of interest. In an interview, Peffer said that he was glad to see the land-money idea progressing in the face of what he called "rabid metallism." He declared against free coinage and will take the stump against it this fall.

LONDON TIMES ON SILVER.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—An editorial in the Times this morning, commenting on ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney's remarks on the silver question, expresses the opinion that the demand for an international agreement to rehabilitate silver will not be fulfilled.

"America's previous efforts," says the Times, "to create a artificial demand for silver only stimulated its production. The same result would follow on however large a scale the abortive project might be revived. The Island and the Sherman Act failed to do the work expected of them, and left a legacy of mischief, which gives promises of long outlasting their repeal."

THE MORA CLAIM TO BE PAID WITH INTEREST.

A Liquidation in a Lump Sum Will be Had in the Month of September.

Favorable Accounts of Cuban Progress Have Been Received from Antonio Maceo.

Gen. de Quesada Has Information from Camagney of the Daily Success of Gomez-The Government.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.) NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Favorable accounts of the progress of the Cuban revolution were received today by Gen. Gonzalo de Quesada, secretary of the revolutionist party in the United States in a letter from Gen. Maceo. The letter is as follows:

General Headquarters in the Field, Montemolpe, July 31.
Dear Sir: The revolution is most peaceful in Santiago de Cuba and in Camagney; every battle so far has been a triumph for the liberators of this country. The soldiers are patriotic, brave and obedient to their leaders. We shall soon oblige the Spanish government to give up the island to the Cubans, who wish to be free and who are striving to throw off this yoke which oppresses and ruins them. The five representatives of the Eastern department have left for Camagney in order to establish the government of the republic. The representatives are Dr. Joaquin Castillo d'Aunay, Rafael M. Posada, Rafael Maudslayi, Pedro Aguilera, Kindelan and Mariana Sanchez Vallarta. These will constitute a government composed of a president and three secretaries, those of war, interior and foreign affairs. It is possible that the president will be Gen. Bartolome Maso. I will send you soon El Cubano, a newspaper which will be published in this department, giving our official news of the military operation of the army of the East and progress of the revolution. Give to the people of the Eastern department our regards and assure them that Cuba has never doubted their sympathy. I am yours with the highest consideration, (Signed) ANTONIO MACEO.

THE MORA CLAIM WILL BE PAID. MADRID, Aug. 13.—At a meeting of the Cabinet Ministers today it was decided to pay the Mora claim in a lump sum in September with interest.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The Mora claim was for about $1,500,000. The interest amounted to about $800,000. It grew out of the confiscation of the property of the late President, a naturalized citizen of the United States. Secretary Olney vigorously pressed the claim on the Spanish government and insisted on an early settlement.

AN EXPEDITION OFF COAST.

PORT LIMO, Aug. 13.—It is claimed here that an expedition destined to attack the Cuban insurgents has been seen off the coast and that a Baltimore steamer transferred its cargo to two schooners. A Spanish warship has been seen off the coast.

IN A BAD WAY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—In an interview in an evening paper Gen. de Quesada says:

"I would not be surprised if Gen. Campos did carry out his oft-repeated threat of throwing up the command in Cuba. Information received from Camagney this morning tells of the successes of Gen. Gomez and of daily reinforcements to his ranks. The city is in a panic. The Spanish troops are afraid to venture beyond its limits. Campos has ordered that every body of troops shall leave a monument behind, and order to show they have operated at the places designated by him. When the soldiers return from their excursions in this region one-half of them are dismissed by sickness."

In the hospital at Puerto Principe there are over four hundred Spanish soldiers, and the deaths average twelve a day. From the sugar plantations of the province fifty Spaniards, natives of Galicia, recently joined the insurgents, showing that even the Spaniards are in sympathy with the revolutionists.

"From Madrid I am informed that the reserves of 1891 are so disgusted at being ordered to Cuba that the government is afraid of mutiny. To prevent this they have been disarmed, and their arms and ammunition will be shipped on a transport in cases, to be delivered to them on landing in Cuba. The revolutionaries declare that they will join the revolutionary forces when they are disembarked in Cuba."

YORK (Eng.), Aug. 13.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Robert Hudson, a young and highly-educated man, who runs through his own and his wife's fortunes, was hanged here today for the murder of his wife, the daughter of the late Lord York, in June last. He cut their throats, shot them and then buried them on the moor. Before killing them Hudson advertised for another wife under the name of Hunter.

Pleaded Guilty.

NEEDLES, Aug. 13.—Francis Gordon, a tramp, was brought before Justice Carroll this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of assault with intent to kill with a deadly weapon. Gordon was riding in an empty freight car on Conductor Pierce's train. A brakeman attempted to put him off, and during the struggle which ensued Gordon tried to use his revolver, but others intervened and it was taken from him. He is a desperate character and will serve the full extent of time in the County Jail.

Cambridge and Yale.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—At a meeting of the representatives of Cambridge and Yale today it was decided that the Cambridge athletic team, after arriving at New York, will go to New Haven, where a house has already been engaged for the accommodation of the English athletes. Cambridge, it has also been determined, will receive half of the net gate receipts. The English team will re-embark on October 8.

Japanese Contract Labor.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The Bureau of Immigration has information that a company has been formed in Japan for the purpose of sending Japanese laborers to this country under contract. Commissioner-General Stamp, in speaking of the matter, said he was inclined to give credence to the rumor. Up to this time only comparatively few Japanese had come into the country, but his information is of such a nature that he is very much interested, and all immigration stations everywhere, especially in the Northwest, are on their guard.

HIS "HOLD-UP"

DRIVER LAINGER'S STAGE IS ROBBED.

Highwayman Seizes Only About Ten Dollars Out of Over Five Hundred.

He is Thought to be the Same Party Who Stopped the Coach on Last Tuesday.

Contradictory Reports Concerning the Condition of Gov. Budd—Durant Case—Mrs. J. N. E. Wilson's Reply—Bank Case.

ROSEBURG (Or.), Aug. 13.—The Coos Bay and Roseburg stage was held up by a lone highwayman this afternoon, only a short distance from where it was stopped last Tuesday. The robber only secured about $10, although the four passengers on board had over $500 in money, which they concealed.

As the stage was coming up Camas Mountain en route from Myrtle Point to Roseburg, between 2 and 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, Dan Cardwell and Bandy Matthews were riding on the box-seat with Driver George Lainger. The driver remarked: "Here is the place where we were held up last Tuesday."

After having driven nearly a quarter of a mile to a point where the grade was heavier and where a large fir tree stood on either side of the road, Cardwell remarked: "Wouldn't it be a joke if a robber should appear from behind that tree on this side of the road?"

Just before he had finished speaking a slight sound as of twigs being broken was heard from the upper side of the road. Lainger said: "My God, here he comes."

At the same instant a man sprang from behind the tree with a pistol in each hand, and the driver claims that he recognizes them as the ones carried in the hold-up a week ago. He wore a mask made from the leg of an old pair of knitted drawers, and he was reaching to his ankles, and his hands were blackened as if with burnt wood.

He cried out: "Hold up, hold up." The driver put on the brakes and stopped. The robber next commanded all hands up, and said: "Put them up high and stand up." He repeated, "Stand up," several times.

No one made a move and Cardwell asked: "Who are you speaking to?" The robber replied: "To you. And throw out your money." The driver stood up and threw $2 to the ground, and was told to dig up the rest and not give him any small stuff. He then gave up $5 more.

On the first alarm Cardwell had thrown a purse containing $198 on the seat behind him, which he saved. Matthews addressed the major, and stood up and delivered. He stood up and threw out $2.50, saying: "I can't help you much further; times are too hard." Yes, I know, said the robber. "That's why I'm in this business."

Matthews carried several hundred dollars in gold and greenbacks which he threw on the back seat and in the boot.

Mad. Pond, lighthouse inspector, and Miss Myrtle Bain were inside, and the robber addressed the major, saying: "Dig up, old man." He took $1.50 from his vest pocket. Miss Bain carried about $14, but was not disturbed.

The driver was then told to stand up, but he refused. The road was so steep it was a difficult matter to stand erect. He was allowed to remain seated. Had he gotten out of the stage and stood on the seat by the passengers would have been in plain view of the robber.

The robber asked if he had any mail. Matthews said: "I have one way, sack, and anybody who would take that would rob his grandmother." The robber did not want that. The driver bade him good-bye, and he replied: "Good-bye; but you will see me again in a day or two."

Lainger is content it is the same fellow who held up the stage on Tuesday. This is his third experience on the same road within a short time. He is confident he would recognize the robber by his voice, which was rather feminine.

A WEAKE CASE.

The Evidence Against Bandit Brady Is Not Strong.

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 13.—The examination of Harry Williams for the murder of Sheriff J. J. Bogard was resumed in Justice Aldrich's court this morning. Evidence introduced showing close relationship between the dead robber known as Sam McGuire, alias Browning, and the defendant, alias Brady, who having passed as brothers. It was proven that the defendant had been in this place a day before the robbery and had a bicycle when he left town.

Taken in connection with the fact that a bicycle was found near the scene of the hold-up, and that the defendant had been seen at the scene, as having been rented to Brady, the prosecution did not think it necessary to introduce any other evidence, as the trainmen had testified on the previous day that the defendant resembled the small robber who they could not positively identify.

When the prosecution rested, Attorney Carlin and Forbes consulted and said that they would reserve their defense for the Superior Court.

Judge Aldrich said that, it appearing from the evidence that there was sufficient cause to believe that a public offense had been committed, and that the defendant was guilty thereof, he would hold him to answer before the Superior Court on a charge of murder, without bond, and that there was sufficient evidence to hold the defendant on a charge of murder.

WARRANTS ARE OUT.

Arrests to be Made in the Merced Bank Case.

MERCED, Aug. 13.—Warrants have been sworn out at Snelling, this county, charging the officers and directors of the Merced Bank, which suspended last October, with embezzlement. The officers are John Ruddle, president; C. Landrum, vice-president; J. W. Howell, cashier. The directors are: J. D. Prigg of Placerville, A. Zirkler of Livingston, C. G. Peck of Atwater, R. White of Fresno, C. C. Nelson of Placerville, Nelson is the Superior who just granted.

ceastfully resisted a suit to oust him from office for allowing $5000 county money to be on open deposit in the Merced Bank when it suspended.

These eight warrants against the people are sworn out by Charles Gallo, saloon-keeper of Snelling, who had $3000 in the bank at the time of its suspension. A Snelling constable came to Merced today to serve the warrants. He first went to Atwater and arrested Director Peck, who came to town and furnished bail in the sum of $100. The charges against the bank officials and directors are based on evidence produced in the suit to oust Nelson from office. Cashier Howell has left the city, but is expected to return tomorrow.

CUT LIKE CHEESE.

Wonderful Ore to be Found in the Aleutian Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—The schooner Golden Gate, which has been on a prospecting cruise among the islands of the Aleutian Archipelago, returned last evening with tales of wonderful mines, where rich ore is to be cut out with a cheese knife. The Golden Gate sailed from San Francisco on the 26th of May with a party of young men who had agreed to share expenses and profits on the Alaskan mining expedition. Three of the party of twelve or more returned with the schooner, but they are full of buoyant hopes, and, after the ore brought down in the hold of the vessel is assayed, will return to the island of Adak.

The men who came down from the north on the Golden Gate say little about the location of their big strike, but it was learned on board the schooner that the mine, which is said to be the most reliable is on one of the islands just south of Kodiak Island. The ore is rebellious, but rich enough to warrant the expenditure necessary to properly mine it.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13.—The news received from Stockton today that the condition of Gov. Budd was decidedly unfavorable filled his friends with alarm. Reports had been received a few days ago that he was mending and the information that he had had a relapse caused considerable surprise, to say the least.

The Governor has not by any means been a robust man for years, although he has always been active. Since his election to the governorship he has been invited upon himself this serious rise of sickness by working almost night and day. He became thin from the lack of rest, and when the news came from Merced some time ago that he had been prostrated by a severe attack of headache, which was located in the back part of the head, the friends who knew him best were greatly alarmed.

NOT SO ALARMING.

STOCKTON, Aug. 13.—Gov. Budd is improving right along. He has been resting comfortably all day, but is weak and effort causes exhaustion. He has no fever and the symptoms of meningitis have disappeared. Nothing but weakness is now troubling him.

THE DURANT JURY.

The Task of Securing it is Exceedingly Difficult.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—The objection of business men to do jury duty in the case of Theodore Durant, charged with the murder of Blanche Lamont, and the alleged bias of those who are ostensibly willing, has made the task of securing a jury exceedingly difficult.

Of twenty veniremen examined at the first session of court today, no talesmen were accepted, because all declared themselves disqualified. The second venire was called and eight, Judge Murphy is anxious to hasten the trial, and is preventing all delay possible. In refusing to begin contempt proceedings against various local newspaper men he has saved probably a week.

A Fool Letter Carrier.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—George Crehore, a letter-carrier, adopted a novel means of raising money, and in consequence has lost his position, with the prospect of criminal prosecution. In delivering letters he was given many letters by business men to take to the postoffice. His plan was to substitute cancelled stamps for the good stamps on the letters. The fraud was soon detected at the postoffice, and Crehore was dismissed. As he could make no money in this way, he turned to dishonest practices the reason for his conduct is a mystery.

The Washington Hop Crop.

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 13.—Ledger special from Walla Walla, Wash., says that reports received there show that the Washington hop-crop will be very small this year. Extra meeker, who on Sunday visited the hop-crop at Snouqualmie, the largest in the State, is quoted as saying that they are spraying there without effect and that it is impossible to get a bale of saleable hops. In the Puyallup Valley only the yards that have been very diligently sprayed are free from lice.

The Bear's Nest Empty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—An evening paper says that the Treadwell Bears' Nest mine, which once gave promise of being the richest mine in the world, and which was recently purchased by a German and English syndicate for $1,000,000, is proving unproductive. The mine is said to have been abandoned by the syndicate, and the syndicate is said to have been abandoned by the syndicate.

A Grand Army Veteran Killed.

MODESTO, Aug. 13.—On August 5, Fred Thompson, who lately served a term of twenty days for petty larceny, struck Charles E. Kettle on the temple with a wagon spoke, which resulted in the death of Kettle early this morning. The deceased was a G. A. R. veteran aged 67 years, a native of New York. The assault is said to have been provoked. The inquest will be held tomorrow. Thompson is under arrest.

Muhler Gives It Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Lewis A. Muhler, who is supposed to have shot and fatally wounded Miss Jennie Lewis in Oakland last night, today surrendered himself to the police. Muhler, who is United States Weather Observer at Point Reyes, admits having called on Miss Lewis yesterday, but says he left her early in the afternoon. He says he knew nothing of the shooting until he read of it in the papers this morning.

Ex-Mayor Gregory Sees.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13.—Mrs. Bruce B. Lee has brought suit in the Superior Court against ex-Mayor Eugene J. Gregory and his brother, Frank Gregory, former commission merchants, who are now insolvent debtors. She sues to recover $9680 loaned them on promissory notes.

A Cut in Rates.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—The Southern Pacific Company has announced a further reduction in wheat freight rates. The cut will go into effect for a few days.

D. C. Lane, who has been absent some time looking after his mining interests, is again at home.

Miss Mammie O'Connor, daughter of Mrs. Ed Phelan, is visiting in Los Angeles.

Clint Hibbard of this place is running a gasoline launch off the seashore resorts of this county.

The City Council will "jockey" the railroad franchise this week.

effect on August 15 and will affect San Luis Obispo, Guadalupe and all points between to San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose. From the towns of San Luis Obispo, Edna and Grover the rates per carload will be $2.25 per ton to San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose. From Calender and Bromelo the rate will be $2.75 and from Guadalupe $3.50. Steamship competition along the coast is said to have caused the reduction.

A DOUBLE LYNCHING.

Father and Son Taken from Jail and Strung Up.

ELLENBURG (Wash.), Aug. 14.—At midnight Tuesday night a mob battered open the steel doors of the County Jail and took out Sam and Charles Vinson, father and son, two murderers concerned in Sunday night's killing affray. The mob took them three blocks from the residence of the Vinsons, and strung them to a tree.

A Miner Killed.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.), Aug. 13.—A. H. Huxley, a miner employed at the Homestead mine, died from injuries received Sunday night. The break on the hoist failed to work, allowing a heavy iron bucket used in raising ore to descend rapidly and in the descent it struck Gruehl on the head, fracturing his skull and causing a concussion of the brain.

Mrs. J. N. E. Wilson's Reply.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Mrs. J. N. E. Wilson has declined her answer to the suit for divorce, instituted by her husband, at one time prominent in San Francisco politics. Mrs. Wilson denies the charge of adultery, and says that the divorce be denied. She also asks for the custody of her five-year-old son, and for a division of the community property, amounting to $250,000.

Mt. Tamalpais a Pleasure Resort.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—J. B. Stetson, Lovell White and several other gentlemen, who are interested in the North Pacific Coast Railway, have had surveys and estimates made for a road to the top of Mt. Tamalpais. A hotel will be built on the summit of the mountain, and it is expected to make Mt. Tamalpais a great pleasure resort.

San Miguel Rancho.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—A local paper says that the heirs of Jose de Jesus Noy will soon bring suit to recover a vast tract of land near Gold Gate Park known as San Miguel Rancho. The property involved is estimated to be worth $24,000,000. The suit will be heard in the Superior Court of the county, and the heirs of Noy to William J. Horner, in 1853.

A Methuon Crew.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—The German ship Alcor arrived today from Swansea with a mutinous crew. When a few leagues out from this port the mutiny broke out into open revolt, a seaman attacked the captain, and the mate firing at the malcontents. The sailors charge the captain with cruelty and insufficient rations. The case will be taken before the German consul.

Gen. George D. Ruggles.

ASTORIA (Or.), Aug. 13.—Gen. George D. Ruggles, adjutant-general of the United States, accompanied by Gov. Meier of Washington, and a number of well-known gentlemen from Portland and Seattle, arrived here today. Gen. Ruggles and party visited the Jetty at the mouth of the Columbia and afterward inspected Fort Canby.

Tulare County's Motion Denied.

HANFORD, Aug. 13.—In the Superior Court of this county today the motion of Tulare county to recover $100,000 money, denied the motion of Tulare county to dismiss the case for want of jurisdiction.

The Olympia Voyage.

VAIL, Oreg., Aug. 13.—The Olympia leaves for Seattle today, and will arrive at 10 o'clock. She was anchored off San Francisco, where she will coal and start for the Asiatic station via Honolulu.

The Mechanic's Institute.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—The twenty-eighth industrial exhibition of the Mechanics' Institute opened today with every augury of success. Literary exercises were held at the Columbia Theater this afternoon, the exhibition at the pavilion being formally opened this evening.

An Insufficiency of Evidence.

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 13.—There is little real evidence connecting Brady with the robbery of the Oregon express and the murder of Sheriff Bogard, and the alleged bandit has been held to answer before the Superior Court. The railroad detectives will try to secure more convincing evidence before the trial.

A Farmer Held Up.

VIBALLA, Aug. 13.—E. W. Root, a wealthy farmer living five miles south of here, was held up by highwaymen and robbed of $30 yesterday afternoon on the road between here and Tulare.

Sacramento County Bonds.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13.—The Board of Supervisors of this county today sold $35,000 worth of county bonds at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent per annum to the Sacramento Funded Debt Commission.

POMONA.

POMONA, Aug. 13.—(Regular Correspondence.) This will be the biggest week of the summer at the cannery folks, as it is the height of the peach and pear season. There are about two hundred employees in all at work now, and they are putting up about 12,000 two-pound cans per day. This represents a big amount of labor and a big outlay of money, but like bread cast upon the waters, it will return in its own good season.

The association of folks and Messrs. Loud & Gerling are busy as bees at their respective drying-yards, with the fruit principally prunes, which is being handled this week.

The residence property on Third street between Parcells and Rebecca streets, owned by him prior to his removal into his home on Second street, and Rebecca streets, has been sold to G. W. Ogle for a consideration of $1900. This is a fair index of the value of Pomona realty, as Mr. Ogle is not a "tenderfoot," but has resided here several years, and knows the ins and outs of things.

Whether or not the new woman has the best of it these days need not be discussed, but one thing is sure, and that is that the baby girls are in the swim hereabouts. This time it is an eight-pound girl presented to O. L. Butler by his wife Monday evening. It will be remembered the last four births reported in these columns have all been of girls.

D. C. Lane, who has been absent some time looking after his mining interests, is again at home.

Miss Mammie O'Connor, daughter of Mrs. Ed Phelan, is visiting in Los Angeles.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.

Jesse J. Jones, a Minneapolis lumberman, has been forced to flee. His liabilities are $150,000; assets $238,000.

A Chicago dispatch says that Walter Matlicks, a wealthy lawyer, dropped dead at the Calumet Club yesterday. He was 40 years old and a bachelor.

Another body terribly mangled was recovered yesterday morning from the ruins of the collapsed building at West Broadway and West Third street, New York city.

A Spencer, Iowa, dispatch says that C. F. Heidershot, a prominent attorney, committed suicide by shooting himself. Financial trouble is given as the cause.

The International Parliamentary Conference on peace arbitration was opened in the hall of the Senate at Brussels yesterday. The representatives of fourteen different countries were present.

A huge iron beam fell from the top of the Coliseum in course of erection on Sixth and Grand streets, Chicago, yesterday, instantly killing Samuel Garney and W. R. Neal.

A Halifax, N. S., dispatch says that a cablegram has been received announcing the sudden death in England of Miss Archibald, eldest daughter of the late Sir Edwin Archibald, for a quarter of a century British Consul at New York.

Justice O'Brien, in the Supreme Court at New York handed down a decision denying the motion for an injunction to restrain the Reorganization Company from purchasing or acquiring the property of the trust, advertised to be sold today.

A rumor is current in Guatemala that the United States will annex Belize and that it will be annexed to Mexico. The Latin provinces of that country could probably be easily persuaded to join the United States.

Simon Wormser, head of the great banking firm, died intestate, a great deal of his estate was expressed on Wall street when the fact became known. The value of the estate left by Wormser must remain a matter of conjecture, but the very low estimate of his net worth is at something less than $3,000,000.

A life-sized painting of ex-President Harrison was received at the White House yesterday. It is the work of John Johnston, a painter from New York, to whom the ex-President gave sittings in the early summer. It will be hung in the White House and will complete the series of portraits of the Presidents.

The North American Telegraph Company, the northernmost ally of the Postal, has leased the lines of the Soo Telegraph Company, extending along the Soo line, and connecting with the Canadian Pacific lines. This gives the North American entrance into Winnipeg and brings it into other advantages.

A United States dispatch says that the Cherokee Nation is gathering there for a meeting to take action to secure full legal rights in the Nation. They claim that the Cherokee Nation has long refused to give justice to them, as provided by past treaties, and they propose to appeal to Congress and the courts for redress.

A New Orleans dispatch says that a grand jury after a lengthy investigation yesterday presented indictments against Maurice F. Hart, four for perjury, one for subornation of perjury and one for having obtained money from the Traction Company by false representation, the amounts ranging from $5000 to $100. Ball was fixed at $1000 on each indictment.

Demetrius Kallias Bey and his bride, who was Mrs. P. T. Barnum, have arrived at Bridgeport, Ct. Mr. and Mrs. Kallias visited Marine and afterward went to the Union Cartridge Company and placed a large order for ammunition for the Turkish government. Acting under order of the Sultan, Kallias inspected the improved machinery used at the factory.

Judge O'Neil rendered a decision yesterday at Cincinnati that the Commercial Bank had been insolvent for some time before it closed its doors, and that it was liable for the claims of its depositors who could identify their money would recover the same. The court holds further that the bank was unlawfully closed, and that the officers and stockholders for losses.

A Bay View, Mich., dispatch says that Judge Woods has refused to grant an appeal in the Woods Trust case and so John McNulta, receiver of the trust, will stand on the postoffice steps in Chicago and dispose of public sale of seventeen acres of land. The outside price is $3,800,000 for the lot and the Reorganization Committee will be the purchaser at those figures.

The Officer Doty found symptoms of yellow fever in the illness of one of the saloon passengers detained at quarantine on the arrival of the steamer Seneca at New York. The man is an American citizen who has been in Cuba some months. The health officers at once had the case isolated at an Swinburne Island. The remaining twenty-four passengers will be held on Hoffman Island to await the developments of the case.

The New York Herald's correspondent at Quito, Ecuador, telegraphs that Gen. Vergara, commanding a division of Alfaro's forces, has occupied Guandara. Sarasti offered only slight resistance, and the occupation was effected without loss. Gen. Alfaro is now awaiting the arrival of a part of Vergara's division in Guaymate. When these troops arrive, the division will attack on Rio Bamba will at once take place.

A Guatemala cablegram says that favorable reports are received from London regarding the progress of negotiations for resuming the interest on the debt. The government here now realizes that it is a huge blunder to stop the interest and a worse mistake was not keeping faith with creditors. There is a strong sentiment in favor of folks, as it is the height of the peach and pear season. There are about two hundred employees in all at work now, and they are putting up about 12,000 two-pound cans per day. This represents a big amount of labor and a big outlay of money, but like bread cast upon the waters, it will return in its own good season.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Do not depend upon the return of rejected manuscripts, but retain copies if you wish to preserve your contributions. Articles should be typewritten and MS. sent flat. Practice brevity and write plainly.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

City subscribers to The Times visiting the country or seaside resorts during the summer can have the daily mailed to them, for a week or longer, by ordering and prepaying for the same at the publication office, or they can have it delivered in any of the seaside towns by ordering from the local agent, and paying in advance.

THE WRIGHT LAW.—Extra copies of The Times, containing the full text of the recent decision of United States Judge Ross as to the legality of the Wright irrigation law may be had at the Times counting-room for 5 cents per copy, or they will be mailed to any address for the same price.

MIDSUMMER NUMBER OF THE TIMES.

On the 15th of August The Times will issue a unique special Midsummer Number, describing Los Angeles and Southern California in the season of utmost warmth, and under the highest conditions of vegetable growth and fruit production.

It will be a number redolent of summer and breathing of the fruits, flowers and grains that grow in our prolific soil.

This issue will differ in essential particulars from any before issued by The Times. The peculiar charms of the country—charms which never fade, but grow brighter with the passing years—will be set forth with fidelity; and our aim will be to make the number as valuable in its contents as it will be attractive in letter-press and illustrations.

It will be a triple sheet of 36 pages, and in its contents will be embraced adequate and accurate descriptions of the towns and cities of the south, with records of progress in each.

The seaside and mountain resorts will receive particular attention, with the especial object of showing strangers what summer life in Southern California actually is.

"The Summer Sea," "Camping and Trout-fishing," "Hunting and Deep-sea Fishing," "The Horse in Southern California," and numbers of other timely topics will be graphically, pleasantly and accurately treated by skilled writers and experts.

City, village, suburban and country homes will be truly pictured and described for the benefit of distant readers and intending residents.

"How Things Grow" is a subject which will be fully treated and refreshingly portrayed.

A volume of up-to-date information about the country will be given, and many new topics will be exploited, and old ones newly treated.

The commercial, business and building progress of the city and country will be shown.

There will be a special and elaborate account of the important oil development in this city, with a trustworthy description of the numerous openings for the application of enterprise and the investment of capital.

Other interesting features of the southern country will be presented in the Midsummer Number. We guarantee a fine issue, a numerous edition, and one of the best of the many creditable papers for which The Times office is notable.

A more specific and detailed list of contents will be found in another part of this issue.

Ex-Speaker Crisp expressed to Speaker-elect Gully his surprise at the sort of clothes the latter gentleman wore in the House of Commons on Monday. Doubtless Mr. Gully was quite as much surprised at the sort of breeding Mr. Crisp displayed in commenting upon his host's apparel.

Wiggins—not the "only," but the Canadian weather-prophet—comes to the front with the statement that "Niagara is drying up." O, that Wiggins would follow Niagara's example!

Saloons in Des Moines, Iowa, are selling two glasses of beer for 5 cents. Let's see; wasn't Iowa a prohibition State not so very long ago?

AN INTERESTING QUESTION.

By the terms of Mrs. Corbett's divorce from the champion thumper, she is allowed $5200 per year alimony, and Corbett is forbidden to marry again during her lifetime, though she is permitted to marry whenever she chooses. Aside from the question of justice in this particular case, it is doubtful if any court can legally and constitutionally enforce all the terms of a decree of this character. The statutes of a State may permit a judge to make such an order, but it would seem that, if the matter were carried to a final test, that part of the decree forbidding one of the divorced persons to marry again must be set aside.

In this particular case, for instance, the parties to the divorce proceedings are married, or they are not. If married, of course that fact must act as a bar to a second marriage of either while the first marriage is in force. If they are divorced, the marriage tie is severed. Can one of the parties to a marriage contract be divorced and released from the contract without divorcing and releasing the other? Can Corbett still be married if his wife is divorced from him? If he no longer has a wife, there is no statutory bar to his marriage. Can he be legally forbidden to marry if there is no statutory bar to such a proceeding?

If it be said that the decree is punitive, the authority of a judge to inflict punishment of this sort is still doubtful. Fine, imprisonment and even death are recognized as legitimate modes of punishment for offenses and crimes of varying magnitude. But is it competent for a judge to sentence a man to celibacy, for any period of time, as a punishment for misdemeanor or crime? If a judge may sentence a man to celibacy for one month or for one year, may he not sentence him for life? If he may properly sentence a man to celibacy for one offense, may he not do so for another? Is enforced celibacy to be accorded rank with enforced confinement in a prison, or enforced payment of a fine, as a mode of punishment for wrong-doing? And if a judge may properly forbid a man to marry, may he not with equal propriety forbid him to eat meat or potatoes, to enter into a business contract, to drink beer, or to perform other acts in themselves legitimate and permissible? In other words, is it not an unwarranted interference with individual liberty, in addition to being both illogical and inequitable, for a judge to forbid a divorced person to marry again?

These questions are raised, not because it is Pugnacious Corbett who has been made subject to the decree referred to, but as an abstract question which is of general interest. As regards Corbett and men of his ilk, it would doubtless be well for the community if they could be restrained from reproducing their species; but that is another question. The principle underlying the decree of divorce in Corbett's case and in parallel cases is the sole matter here considered. The Times is not informed as to whether this principle has ever been carried to an ultimate test in the highest court. If it has not been subjected to such a test, it ought to be.

A NEW ERA.

Japan is certainly progressing, and the world will soon open its eyes to see in this little island kingdom a nation deserving of its respect.

Thirty years ago religious intolerance was a marked feature of that government, and the Buddhist and Shinto priests had things all their own way, and woe to those who did not accept their teachings or who went contrary to their doctrines. But now the Christian faith is placed upon an equality with national beliefs, and it is stated that during the late war 200,000 copies of the New Testament were distributed among the soldiers of Japan's army and that Christian chaplains were provided for such as had embraced Christianity.

Still another evidence of Japan's advancement is found in the fact that recently the Department of Home Affairs issued a circular to the hierarchy of the Buddhist and Shinto priests, calling attention to the immorality and general unworthiness of many of the clergy of those two sects, and warning the bishops that they must relieve from responsibility those who are found unworthy.

This action of the Japanese government speaks volumes for its enlightened spirit as well as for the temper of its people. With the Bible in the hands of its soldiers, and with the government on the side of tolerance and morality, we may look to see great changes transpiring among the Japanese people, changes that will not lead them to take any steps backward or downward, but rather to keep steady step with progress in the onward march of civilization.

The student of events cannot question the future of Japan, or doubt that it will be a beacon light shining amid the darkness of the Orient. China will ultimately be illumined by it, and its shadows of superstition be dissipated, and slowly before it will the long night of ignorance and darkness roll away until the civilization of the Occident and the Orient are mingled and a new and better era dawns for the world.

ANOTHER "TIMES" PRESS RECEPTION.

Deferring to the general interest in the matter, and complying with numerous requests from patrons, The Times will again throw open its press-room to the public while Part II of the Midsummer Number is being printed. The hours will be from 9 to 10:30 o'clock this evening and the doors will not be open before the time first named. Correspondents, contributors and agents of The Times who may be in the city are invited to be present. Ladies shall have the preference of entrance and standing-room to witness the knightly behavior of the "Old Guard" and his queenly companion, "Columbia."

One of the latest English "impressions" of America is that emitted by Jerome K. Jerome, an indifferent playwright and a vastly overrated author. He has written an article on democracy as applied to our form of government, and he finds it to be an "idle folly," and adds that "no one but an uneducated fool can believe in it." There is an impression current, and it is by no means confined to the United States, that Washington, Jefferson, Hamilton, Lincoln, Blaine, and some others, whose names need not be enumerated, were not altogether "uneducated fools," and that in point of fact they knew nearly as much about affairs of government as Jerome K. Jerome.

There is seldom a loss without a corresponding gain somewhere. About half a million persons, it is estimated, have left New York each Sunday in search of better irrigating facilities since the Sunday-closing of the saloons in the metropolis went into effect. What is Gotham's loss is the distinct gain of all the beer-gardens within a wide radius thereof. And the transportation companies, too, are reaping a rich harvest. Meanwhile, if the reports of New York papers be true, there are some citizens who, although they stay at home on Sundays, are not obliged to go without their regular "constitutional." But the war goes merrily on.

The Globe-Democrat of St. Louis says that Gen. Harrison's attitude toward the Presidential candidacy is simply "one of solicited receptivity." "Solicited receptivity" is good; very good, indeed. That "receptivity" is a large and yawning chasm in the mind of the son of his grandfather's large hat, and it explains not only Gen. Harrison's attitude, but that of Grover Cleveland as well. But the difficulty lies in the fact that the attitude of the American people is not one of "solicited receptivity" as far as receiving either of the above-mentioned Presidents is concerned. It is in search of better Presidential timber, and will find it, too.

Senator Hill predicts that the year 1896 will witness "one of the greatest Democratic victories recorded in history." Mr. Hill, as a prophet, is without honor in his own country or elsewhere. He predicted a great Democratic victory in 1894, in his own State. The result of the election is well remembered—something like 175,000 Republican plurality. The less Mr. Hill has to say in a prophetic way, this year, the better it will be for his reputation as a political soothsayer.

A rumor is current to the effect that President Cleveland, in his next message to Congress, will earnestly recommend the establishment of a new Cabinet portfolio, to be known as the Department of Explanation. The rumor lacks confirmation, as yet; but heaven knows there are enough things which need explanation, in the administration's policy, to keep such a department busy. And a large corps of clerks would be needed, too.

It is reported that Tammany has again captured the primaries in New York city. This means serious mischief, unless the decent people of New York at once bestir themselves, and keep bestirring at a lively pace until after-election. The disreputable old Tammany tiger has a great many more lives than the traditional nine lives of the cat. Eternal vigilance is the price of its subjection.

Chicago is still discussing the question of "how to burn garbage," as though it were an occult scientific problem, seemingly impossible of solution. But it isn't. The way to burn garbage is to burn it.

The Cornell oarsmen say it was "the wretched climate of England" which defeated them at Henley. The climate of England is undoubtedly very wretched indeed; but somehow the English oarsmen seem to thrive upon it pretty well.

There's one good thing about the present situation of affairs in New York. The people of the wicked metropolis have now some means of knowing when it's Sunday.

It is a noteworthy fact that Puffer has kept his whiskers out of Kansas during most of the time since the cyclone season fairly set in.

The Derrick Fell.

J. R. Price, an employee at the gas works, was hurt yesterday afternoon by the fall of a derrick. The derrick struck him on the head, causing an ugly blow, and seriously bruised two of the fingers on his left hand. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital, and removed to his home at No. 236 West Twenty-seventh street.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

BILLY MORRISON IS SENTENCED TO FOLSOM FOR ROBBERY.

William Keating Declared Insane—Two Mexican Horse-thieves Are Captured.

A Non Est Police Commission—New Appointees Fail to Materialize at the Meeting.

Villainous Practices Conducted in the Rear of the City Hall—Girls Who Utilize City Hall Park. A Fence Needed.

There was no regular meeting of the Police Commissioners yesterday, sufficient time not having elapsed for the new members to qualify themselves for office. The Finance Committee of the Council is preparing a recommendation to the effect that a high board fence be erected in the rear of the City Hall, the object of the same being to shut off communication from the City Hall Park with a Spring-street saloon frequented by young girls, who gather there for immoral purposes.

The deadlock still continues at the Courthouse, and all was dull and silent yesterday, except in the indefatigable Township Court, and in Department Two, where Judge Clark did a rushing business all day, and disposed of many cases.

AT THE CITY HALL.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

Ring Out the Old, Ring in the New—Commissioners Interviewed.

The sessions of the Board of Police Commissioners are usually held at 10 o'clock on Tuesday mornings of each week, but no session of any sort was held at any time during the day yesterday. An adjournment was taken at the last meeting until 2:30 o'clock yesterday, but at 10 o'clock the room ordinarily occupied by the Commissioners in holding their sessions was filled with a throng of curious people, who were no doubt anxious to catch a glimpse of the new appointees on the commission. But they were disappointed, as the new members had not yet appeared on the scene was Guy Barham, who passed through the crowd receiving the congratulations of friends upon his retention of office. The City Clerk was instructed on Monday to issue certificates of appointment to the newly-elected Commissioners, but the interim, of course, was too short for the members to qualify themselves for office. The members of the new board were waited upon yesterday by a Times representative, and the attitude upon the issue which it is understood, served as a rock to wreck the old commission. The social evil as it exists in Alameda street is a knotty problem which the recent board failed to solve, and while minor differences between the commission and the Council may have hastened the dismissal of the commissioners, yet it is known that most of the fuss was engendered by the discussion of the disposal to be made of the old Alameda street saloon. The new board, where the fallen women of the city congregate. Hence the interest felt in the attitude of the new Commissioners upon this subject.

Commissioner Glass of the book-binding firm of Glass & Long was seen at the office, and without hesitation declared his opposition to any action which would result in scattering the women over the city, and away from Alameda street. "I will admit," said Mr. Glass, "that the women of Alameda street are a nuisance, but it is not the business of the police department to remove them. It is the business of the city to provide for the housing of these people, but to drive them from their present location, without more than a warning, would be unwise, and result, of course, in their settlement in every portion of the city." Mr. Glass hastened to leave the office, and the public gaze would be more desirable for the housing of these people, but to drive them from their present location, without more than a warning, would be unwise, and result, of course, in their settlement in every portion of the city.

Mr. Glass, who is a member of the police department by the new commission. Personally he favors the retention of Chief Glass in office, considering him a competent man to fill the position he now occupies. J. H. Martin, another of the new appointees, was found at his office, where he was seen by a Times representative. Mr. Martin, to use a current phrase, was "quite shy" on the subject of the social evil, and respectfully declined to be interviewed upon the interesting topic. "The fact is," said Mr. Martin to the reporter, "it is very probable that I shall not be a police commissioner after all, and you see for yourself the fact would be in it if I pressed my views as a commissioner when I am only a plain private citizen. My duties as secretary of this corporation are many, and I am sure I shall not know positively as to whether I will accept the appointment or not until the next meeting of the stockholders. The Mayor changed his mind, and a courtly wave of the hand the reporter was ushered into the entrance leading to the outer atmosphere.

Commissioner Glass has not conceded his opinion in the past with regard to the crisis on Alameda street, but at the request of the reporter outlined anew his position in the matter. "I am not a police commissioner," he said, "not of persecuting these people who live on Alameda street and who are known as prostitutes, by routing them from their homes, but I am in favor of concentrating the entire affair in a single locality where the strictest supervision can be exercised by the police. Let these fast women, who flaunt through the street in stylish carriages, their bodies covered with finery, a slight state decent men seek to avoid, and occupy the same position as those wretches who live in 'cribs' and whom everybody despises. Take the glamour off the thing. Make it respectable. Let the women who have the slightest connection with the business in any way, shape or form, that's my position. This thing can't be eradicated. It must be regulated. And I shall use my best judgment in voting for measures which seem to me to approach perfect regulation."

Building Permits.

Building permits were issued yesterday as follows:

C. H. Whitmarsh, a dwelling on Hill street, between Second and Third streets, to cost $400.

M. E. Mills, a dwelling on Los Angeles street, between Fourth and Winston streets, to cost $300.

Boyle Heights Presbyterian Church on Chicago street, between Michigan and First streets, to cost $3500.

George F. Hodgman, a dwelling on Gas street, between Hawkins and Baldwin streets, to cost $400.

Dr. Edgar, a store building on Broadway, between Second and Third streets, to cost $15,000.

Dr. D. W. Wise, an addition to dwelling on Grand avenue, between Pico and Fifteenth streets, to cost $2000.

George Eubie, a dwelling on Bonnie street, between Ninth and Tenth streets, to cost $3400.

F. W. Hoppe, a store building on Fourth and Central streets, to cost $2000.

Dr. G. R. Wicks, a dwelling on Newton street, between Central and Tennessee streets, to cost $1000.

Simson Bros., two dwellings on Main street, between Chambers and Date streets, to cost $500 each.

C. C. Shepherdson, a dwelling on Sixteenth street, between Grand avenue and Hill street, to cost $1400.

J. B. Waters, a lodging-house on Olive street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, to cost $4000.

City Hall Notes.

Mayor Rader yesterday received a telegram from the Secretary of the Navy stating that the warship Monterey, now at San Diego, will stop for a few days at Redondo on her way to the northern ports.

Superintendent of Buildings Strange has prepared a list of the buildings in the city which should be fitted with smokestacks, but which are not so furnished. The list is a long one, numbering over one hundred and fifty buildings, and including almost all of the prominent blocks throughout the city. He will present his report to the Fire Commissioners, who will doubtless take steps to remedy the existing condition of affairs.

It is Another Baker.

It is stated that instead of J. M. Baker, it is James D. Baker, son of a prominent business man of this city, who is wanted for employment. It will be remembered that the case in question is where Baker acted as agent for Emil Ulbricht of this city for the sale of bicycles in Redondo, and was prosecuted to result in money he received for bicycles sold.

will be attempted by either Council or commission.

CRYING SHAME.

Disgraceful Use Made of the City Hall Park.

While the citizens of Los Angeles have scarcely ceased to hear the echoes resulting from the discussion of the famous fence on Alameda street, it is probable that a new fence problem will soon confront the City Council, who will be called upon to take cognizance of a fast-increasing evil carried on under the very noses of the city solons.

For several weeks past the officials who frequent the City Hall have noticed, during the day, squads of young girls who enter the gate leading to the City Hall Park, pass through the grounds to the rear of the building, and then mysteriously disappear as though swallowed up in some all-engulfing quagmire. The matter became so notorious as to cause a vast amount of comment from the spectators who could not but notice the procedure and who, without positive knowledge upon the subject, guessed what now proves to be the truth in the case. A Times reporter was yesterday stationed in the rear of the City Hall, during the middle of the afternoon, to investigate the matter and ascertain the facts which might lie hidden beneath the actions of the women and young girls who have been observed passing possession through the park and behind the City Hall. The reporter had not long to wait before a string of females skurried through the grounds only to disappear at the end of the passageway, down a flight of steps leading to a room which fronts on Spring street. They were girls not over eighteen years old, respectable in appearance, and not bearing at all the marks pertaining to a dissipated and vicious life. After their entrance in the building referred to, the reporter was enabled to investigate of the entire place, discovering that the passageway leads to a saloon, in the rear of which are twelve rooms, partitioned off from the main room, and occupied by these girls who pass from the City Hall Park into this suburb of hades. The rooms were filled when the reporter passed through, and the undesirable of his presence was evinced by the angry looks from peeping eyes which were stationed at the half-closed doors of the rooms. The apartments above the saloon are notorious as constituting a bawdy house of the worst pattern, the rooms in the basement being simply an extension of the upper story.

The windows of the rooms occupied by the female characters who frequent the place open upon the City Hall building and within twenty feet of the City Hall entrance. The girls are carried on, in plain sight of whoever may chance to pass in the rear of the building. Mayor Rader has been taking notice of the matter, and has ordered the City Hall entrance by these girls and stated yesterday that but for the fact that he will leave for the East before the end of the month, he would have taken steps to have the entrance to that body asking that a fence be erected in the rear of the City Hall to prevent the girls from coming into the building, and to prevent the girls from coming into the building, and to prevent the girls from coming into the building.

The Finance Committee of the Council in the absence of action by the Mayor, has taken steps to have a fence erected in the rear of the City Hall to prevent the girls from coming into the building, and to prevent the girls from coming into the building, and to prevent the girls from coming into the building.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

Property Assessments Acted Upon by the Board.

The Board of Equalization, which has been in session for three weeks, will complete its labors tomorrow. Yesterday the board took action upon a number of cases brought to its notice, reducing several assessments, which had been previously made. An assessment of $325 upon lot 7 of the Uriques tract was made void by the board, the assessment having been levied upon improvement. Coming Will Contest.

The people of the State of California have entered an objection to the probate of the alleged last will and testament of Catalina Reynolds, deceased, filed for probate by Bernabe B. de Fay. The contest is against Bernabe B. de Fay, her brother, P. H. Dominguez, and her daughter, Attilla Mason, who are, as the contestants claim, the real proponents of the alleged will.

Catalina Reynolds died on February 17, 1885, in the house of Mrs. de Fay, leaving an estate valued at about $5000, in which there were several legal heirs. The alleged will bequeaths this estate to the defendants, and the State contests its validity on the ground that it was executed under duress, and that the contents were dictated by Mrs. de Fay. The State now enters suit to escheat the property, as returning to the government through the failure of legal heirs.

Court Notes.

The Bridget Wilson will case bobbed up for a few minutes yesterday in Department Two, when the proponents' motion to set aside the verdict and have a new trial was denied. Judgment was granted to the State, and the estate was taxed with the costs of litigation.

In the case of the Security Loan and Trust Company, the State, the defendants were ordered by default.

Mrs. Adela C. Lea was yesterday granted a divorce from her husband by Judge Clark.

Mrs. E. Halversu was granted a divorce from her husband, E. K. Halversu.

Mrs. Natalie de Mersanne obtained a divorce yesterday from her husband, F. E. de Mersanne, by kind permission of Judge Clark.

Hazel Belle de Blume, a little girl, was adopted yesterday by Mrs. Mary B. Woodward, the necessary formalities taking place in Department Two.

A DARK SECRET.

A Female Swindler Uses the Mails to Defraud Mates.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.) CLEVELAND (O.), Aug. 13.—E. S. Johnson and wife, colored, of Zoar Station, O., were brought here last night by a deputy United States marshal and lodged in jail on the charge of fraudulently using the mails. Under the name of Ida Gilchrist, Mrs. Johnson, who is as black as coal, and who lives in a shanty, advertised in a matrimonial paper for a husband, saying she was possessed of a fortune.

She received replies from all parts of the country, and soon succeeded in getting proposals from a number of correspondents, but when they offered to marry her she told them she could not get along with any of them, and asked for a loan. It is now believed that she was a swindler. Her husband was also implicated in the swindle.

Plead Guilty to Eight Figures.

PIERRE (S. D.), Aug. 13.—Defaulting State Treasurer W. W. Taylor pleaded guilty to the embezzlement of $87,024.14 to Judge Gaffney's court today. Taylor will be sentenced tomorrow.

THE COURTS.

"Billy" Morrison Given Two Years in Folsom.

"Billy" Morrison, charged jointly with Harry F. Seavers, of robbing F. Dobner of $6, was brought before Judge Clark yesterday, and withdrew his plea of guilty, entering instead the plea of not guilty.

The complaint accused Morrison of forcibly taking the money from Dobner, but the defendant stated that he was drunk at the time, and could not have done so. His story was that he and Seavers were walking down the street together on the night of the alleged robbery, when they met a man who thrust some money into Morrison's hand. Seavers struck at the man, and with it until he was arrested for robbery.

Morrison declared that he was unarmed, and that he did not see or know his person at the time the incident occurred, thus precluding any idea of criminal intent in the little fracas.

Judge Clark appeared to think differently concerning the criminal intent, however, and Morrison was given two years at Folsom.

Keating Declared Insane.

William M. Keating, arrested a few days ago for brutal treatment of his mother, was examined before Judge Clark yesterday for insanity, and was duly committed to Highland.

Keating was taken to a restaurant, and is an ex-opium fiend. He used the drug to excess some eight years ago, and was a victim to what is called the second stage of the opium habit. He attempted to stop using the poison, and became mentally unbalanced in consequence, being affected with the delusion that he was persecuted by the agents and obnoxious remarks of both strangers and acquaintances.

He told his story quite coherently, acknowledging the abuse of his mother, but stating that he was driven to it by her continual nagging. As the delusion seemed quite fixed, and there was serious danger of future violence in the event of the attack increasing, it was deemed necessary to send him to the asylum.

Horse-thieves Captured.

Two Mexican horse-thieves were captured yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Martin Aguirre, who thus brought to a close a series of adventures of a difficult task of two months' duration.

Walter Darpe of Rivera is the owner of a fine horse which was stolen about two months ago. Aguirre undertook to recover the animal, and held a fortnight ago succeeded in locating it in East Los Angeles. The man who had stolen the horse stated that he had obtained possession of it through a trade with two Mexicans. The deputy sheriff was given a detailed description of the men, and succeeded yesterday in landing them in jail.

Byrne Gives Bonds.

Hugh Byrne, the Southern Pacific conductor arrested upon the charge of having committed petty larceny in taking up the coupon ticket belonging to Albert Forman, was arraigned yesterday before Judge Clark, and held in $200 bail. The trial is set for next Thursday at 10 a.m.

New Suits.

UNITED STATES LIQUOR TAX.

Some Correspondents Make the Collector's Life a Burden.

The Internal Revenue Office is in receipt of numerous communications, some of which are anonymous, regarding the suspected sale of liquor at various places without the requisite United States license. Among such epistles recently received is the following from Fullerton:

"Internal Revenue Coll. I do wish you would look after this H—1 hole hear in fullerton if you please and see if the Have a United States license a year ask the Bord of supervisors and they have don nothing. Please Publish this in the Los Angeles Times and Hear if you please and oblige a Merican citizen and a tot."

Accompanying the anonymous letter is a newspaper clipping containing a letter in the same tenor presented to the supervisors. It occupies a good deal of the Collector's time investigating such reports as this.

Lovers Reunited.

A peculiar case of a lovers' quarrel was, with the aid of the police, brought to a singular termination Monday afternoon. A young woman employed as a waitress at the restaurant which is kept in connection with the Hotel Henry IV, at No. 224 1/2 Aliso street, became dissatisfied, and told her troubles to a policeman. She admitted that she had been indiscreet with a certain young man, and she wanted him to marry her. The policeman burst in, wanted the man and accompanied him to where the young woman was staying. There were no harsh words said, and almost before the officers realized what was going on, the two were saying nice things about each other, and acting as if there never had existed and differences between them. That was the situation when the officer left them.

For Resisting an Officer.

James Stetker, the man with a face like a patent-medicine picture, "beating taking," who abused a woman on Alameda street last Sunday night and then resisted Deputy Constable Magness who arrested him, appeared before Police Judge Owens for sentence yesterday. When asked if he had any reason to give why sentence should not be pronounced he made a sort of rambling statement in the course of which he said he had not had a fair trial. He was lectured severely on the enormity of the offense of resisting arrest and was given one hundred days in jail.

THE TEMPERANCE WORKERS.

A Session That Was Full of Practical Value.

Tuesday's session of the W.C.T.U. School of Methods, at Long Beach, was a great success. There were about one hundred and fifty people present and every one of them was keenly interested. The papers were chiefly in regard to the W. C. T. U. work for and among children, and were both up-to-date and to the point.

Mrs. N. P. J. Button, State president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, conducted the morning's exercises. After devotional exercises, Mrs. Mary Threlkeld read a paper, "Open Doors," contrasting the opportunities of the woman of today with the cramped life of the woman of half a century ago. She described with great detail the country school of that day, a log cabin with puncheon floor and benches without any backs.

Mrs. Mary C. Glass talked on the subject of cruelty to children, the underserved whippings given merely that a nervous mother might give vent to her overwrought feelings, the bugaboo stories told to frighten children into good behavior, the little injustices which hurt a child's heart so much. Both of these papers of the morning were very profitably discussed by the audience.

Mrs. Lucy S. Blanchard conducted the afternoon's exercises. Mrs. Celia Noll gave a description of the Loyal Temperance Legion, its aims, its methods, and the results it achieves. Mrs. Elmina D. Stephens gave an address on the duty of parents and society to the child, which fairly set the audience on fire with her brilliant and pointed out the great truth that the first duty of all parents is to see that their children are well-born, well-bred, and well-trained can do much, but they cannot entirely overcome heredity. Mrs. Stephens then passed to the question of how to keep young men from the saloon. It is her belief that every church in the land should be kept open all the time. Every one of them should have game rooms and reading-rooms, in which the respectable people there all the time to make things pleasant, instead of driving the boys to the warm, bright saloon by continually praying over them and telling them of their innate sinfulness.

Mrs. Kate Tupper Galpin read a paper, "The Importance of Prevention in Temperance Work." The last paper of the afternoon was by Mrs. Lucy S. Blanchard, a discussion of juvenile temperance work, in which she pointed out the importance of which Mrs. Blanchard is eminently qualified to speak. Among those who took part in the discussion of the papers of the afternoon were: Mrs. M. B. Bannister, Burt, Galpin, McCartney, Stickney and Stephens, Miss Ada Bisbee, and Messrs. Carpenter, Pomeroy, McCartney, Churchman, and Welles.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A Thousand Pounds of Honey—A New Forage Plant.

"I've some interesting things to show you today," said the turtle to the reporter. He ambled briskly across the exhibit hall to the spot where the dried-fruit kiosks used to stand. "They are taking the kiosks to pieces to ship it to Atlanta. To fill its place, J. H. Brodbeck, a resident of Los Angeles, has put up this pyramid of honey. Doesn't it make your mouth water to look through the glass ends of those boxes? That pyramid is five feet and a half in height, and contains 1000 pounds of California sugar honey, the very best in the world. It all came from Mr. Brodbeck's apiary at Calabasas."

Arizona led the way toward the elephant. "Here's something else you must look at, a specimen of the Australian salt-plant. This piece was raised from seed imported from Australia by the agricultural department of the University of California. Some of the seed was sent to R. N. Walton, who lives at No. 609 East Second street, here in Los Angeles. He planted it in his yard and is delighted with the result. He thinks it will make a very valuable forage plant, much better than alfalfa. Several crops can be raised every year, and from ten to twenty tons to the acre yearly. The plants grow to a larger size than alfalfa, but the stems aren't nearly so tough and hard to chew. It's very hardy and grows well even on alkali land. Best of all, it tastes much better than alfalfa, even though that is mighty good. I've eaten them both and I know."
